

Flex Therapist CEUs

Telehealth Rehabilitation

1. What is the definition of Telehealth or Telemedicine?

- A. Telehealth is the use of electronic information and telecommunication technologies to remotely provide health care information and services.
 - B. Telehealth is the use of email and SMS text to remotely provide health care information and services.
 - C. Telehealth is only defined as discussing a patients case with another practitioner
 - D. Telehealth is the use of electronic information and telecommunication technologies to provide health care services in-person.
-

2. What are the three models of Telehealth delivery?

- A. Telefacilitation, Asynchronous and Remote Patient Monitoring
 - B. Synchronous, Asynchronous and Remote Patient Monitoring
 - C. Synchronous, Asynchronous and Facilitated Virtual Visits
 - D. Simutaneous, Asynchronous and Facilitated Virtual Visits
-

3. Which of the following is not an operational need for conducting a telehealth visit?

- A. EMR
 - B. Virtual video platfrom
 - C. Internet connection
 - D. Support staff
-

4. When treating telehealth patients which of the following is a breach of HIPAA?

- A. Sharing the patient health information with another practitioner to direct patient care
 - B. Using a password protected personal computer
 - C. Using a shared office space where the patient can be easily seen on the computer screen
 - D. Sharing video links to the patient to explain a diagnosis
-

5. Which of the following does not improve patient engagement?

- A. Active listening
 - B. Good video quality
 - C. Seeing friends and/or family members to build rapport during appointments
 - D. Providing HEP videos which instruct the patient how to perform corrective exercises
-

6. Which of the following virtual video platforms best limits risk of a HIPAA violation?

- A. Facetime
 - B. Zoom Health
 - C. Google Hangouts
 - D. Facebook
-

7. A 75 year old patient calls your office for an initial evaluation with a diagnosis of a Left femur fracture. She is NWB and reports cardiovascular complications of HTN in addition to several falls in the past week. Is this patient eligible for a telehealth appointment?

- A. No, due to her fall risk and cardiovascular history this patient is not eligible for telehealth
 - B. Yes, this patient is eligible for telehealth services
 - C. Maybe, it would be best to start with a free consultation to determine if she is eligible for telehealth services
 - D. Yes, due to the primary injury being a MSD
-

8. What new patient paperwork is legally required?

- A. Physician referral
 - B. Telehealth consent form
 - C. Functional outcome measures
 - D. Appointment procedures
-

9. What legal considerations should be taken into account when maintaining patient privacy during telehealth appointments?

- A. Clinician environment and location
 - B. Whether the patient's device is password protected
 - C. Patient environment and location during appointment
 - D. Location of patient diagnosis
-

10. Which of the following complies with licensure requirements?

- A. PT and patient in the same state of clinician licensure
 - B. PT in state of licensure, patient outside state of PT's licensure
 - C. Both PT and patient outside state of licensure
 - D. PT in state of licensure, patient outside country of PT's licensure
-